THE FIRM

Fernando Messias Law Office is made up of several attorneys, one jurist and two administrative assistants. The firm aims to meet the growing demands of companies linked to the tourism and hotel industries. The national and international partnerships formed as a result of its work allow the firm to respond in an expedient and effective manner to its clients' demands. In 2009, Fernando Messias Law Office hopes to grow and develop in areas such as knowledge management and corporate identity, which is essential in tourism law.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

The firm's main areas of practice include: tourism law (international and community law for tourism, tourism development and the hotel sector); commercial and corporate law; litigation (civil, public, commercial and criminal law); real estate and property law (estates, immovable property and property rights).
